

Dear film club friends,

This month's film will be "The Lunchbox" (not Juliet Naked as we said last month). We wanted an Indian film to go with Indian food. This was difficult as most Bollywood films are very long and we always have films that are less than 2 hours. "The Lunchbox" is a delightful film – it is set in Mumbai and is based on the extremely successful delivery of many thousands of lunches delivered each day to workers at their desks. The protagonists are a lonely widower and a frustrated younger woman, whose husband has lost interest in her. I have seen it and enjoyed it very much, so I hope you will too. There are some subtitles, but mostly the film is in English.

The Snowtown Roadhouse Sikh cooks (from the Punjab region of India) will provide delicious curries and rice (there will be 2 different meat ones and a vegetarian, plus rice) followed by icecreams. We will be waited on as usual. The winery this month is Tim Ruddenklau Wines. Please support Tim by purchasing wines if you are in need of some – we are grateful to the Clare Valley wineries for continuing to support us.

Date: October 31st (5th Wednesday)

Time: Doors open at 5:45 for wine tasting and nibbles; film will start at 6:30, then dinner in the hall to follow. We will have discussion and a quiz and raffle during dinner.

Please let me know as soon as possible if you will attend, we will put in the order on Friday 26th, so only a few bookings can be taken after this. Pass this on to anyone you believe would be interested in attending and let me know if you wish to be taken off the mailing list. (I eventually take you off after a year or so if I haven't heard from you).

If you have any comments, both positive and negative, please let me know as it helps with planning. Also if you are interested in taking a more active role in our film club, please let me know. I hope to see many of you there at our penultimate gathering of the year!

With best wishes

Sally Michael
